Unemployment of graduates due to outdated education

797. SHRI EKANATH K. THAKUR: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware of the fact that the graduate unemployment is growing as our university education is simply not geared to meet employment objectives;

(b) whether it is a fact that out of the 9.28 million students in higher education, only 17 per cent are pursuing professional streams while the rest are in degree programmes;

(c) whether it is a fact that curriculum does not match up the requirements of the industry; and

(d) if so, the steps Government propose to take to restructure the outdated courses?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI MD. ALI ASHRAF FATMI): (a) to (d) Employment in industry is only one of th« objectives of higher education. Students opt for professional courses, depending on their aptitude, eligibility and capacity of institutions offering such programmes. The UGC has encouraged the introduction of career oriented programmes alongwith core programmes at various levels of higher education. A model curriculum developed by the UGC for linking general studies with professional courses has been sent by the Commission to universities for adoption with appropriate modification. However, universities being
